

6516209385.txt

XM radio is a personal choice that I pay for so that I don't have to listen to commercials and can choose the style of music I appreciate most. Major storms over the memorial day weekend were tracked through my radio and were of great importance in my travels. I urge you to reject NAB's petition 04-160 and let XM create an even better service for it's customers.